

ACI Global Training Instructor Biography

Aram Karagueuzian
Courses: Airport Statistics

Aram joined the ACI world Economics and Statistics team in September 2011 and currently holds the position of Manager, Airport Traffic Statistics and Forecasts. He is in charge of the daily operations related to monthly and annual airport traffic data collections, processes and quality controls. He is also responsible of time series analysis and forecasts.

Before Joining ACI, Aram worked in the retail banking sector in Montreal and tutored for graduate courses in economics, statistics and financial theory.

Aram holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in economics with specialization in financial economics from Concordia University.