Andrew Perrier

Group Business Development Director Almusbah Group

National Parking Company (Mawgif)

A British / New Zealand hybrid, Andrew has been based fulltime in the Middle East since 2013.

Andrew is responsible for spearheading the major business development ventures for the Saudi Arabia family owned Almusbah Group's diverse business interests both regionally and globally including for National Parking Company (Mawgif), the largest airport parking concession operator in the Middle East now entering the African market.

Prior to joining Almusbah Trading Group, Andrew was Global Sales & Marketing Director for NZ tech start up MeterEye, which became a ASX listed company through Australian rich lister Chris Morris (founder of Computershare)

Before MeterEye, he was General Manager for Trans Tasman based business print specialist, Premier Business Print,

Andrew has also held mid management roles for NZ Post subsidiary Datam, Canon and Philips in New Zealand as well as Managing Director India and Asia Pacific for IMR; a leading Colorado based software company.

Andrew was the founding Chairman for the New Zealand Business Council and is in-market advisor to New Zealand Middle Business Council in Auckland.

Andrew has supported being an active dual paid World Business Partner membership to ACI Asia Pacific & Middle East as well as ACI Africa.

He has served an elected term on the Airport Council International (AC)I World Economics Committee, is part of the ACI Asia Pacific Middle East World Business Partner Consultative Panel as well as part of the ACI ANARA Subcommittee.

Andrew holds an M.B.A from Massey University in Auckland New Zealand.

ACI Asia-Pacific Unit 13, 2/F, HKIA Commercial Building, 1 Sky Plaza Road, Hong Kong International Airport, Hong Kong
Telephone (852) 2180-9449 / Facsimile (852) 2180-9462 / Email info@aci-asiapac.aero / Website www.aci-asiapac.aero

ACI is an association incorporated in Canada